

Sinclair should not have their license renewed if they are using the public airwaves to influence people with a "documentary" that is portrayed as fact, when it is fiction. Democracy suffers when the reporting is not balanced and fair for both candidates.